CHIMNEYVILLE WEAVERS NEWSLETTER

May-June, 1982

Dianne Davidson, Editor

1231 Ferncrest Dr. Jackson, Ms. 39211 956-7660

Florewood was much enjoyed by those who were able to attend. Chimneyville Weavers made the front page of the Greenville Sunday paper and were interviewed for segments on two local T.V. Stations. Lots of good publicity!

WELCOME BACK WINKI! Winki, Kent and family have returned to Meridian; their new address is the former Meridian address.

CONVERGENCE PIECE; it's on its way!!! Amy Evans took care of the shipping from Jackson, Marcy will tend to it from Seattle, and Judy Rayner will receive the piece when it comes home after Convergence. Thanks Amy, Marcy and Judy for all your help.

CONCERNING HONORARIA: At a recent Guild meeting it was suggested and voted upon that honoraria be distributed as follows: 5% of the fee to go to the Guild treasury, transportation of attending members paid, and the remainder (if any) to be divided equally among the participants.

FUTURE MEETINGS: JUNE: Children's Craft Sampler at the Craft Center at the Natchez Trace. Nancy Keyes will bring cardboard looms and we plan to warp them that morning. Please be there by 11:30 a.m. We need your help with the children.

JULY and AUGUST: Meetings will be held in individual homes -- Make an appointment with your loom and keep it! Weave for the September Show at the Meridian Junior College. Pieces woven at other times are also acceptable! Seriously-- please make every attempt to see that you are well represented at this show. Remember: items may be for sale. (See following note concerning shipping pieces to Meridian).

SEPTEMBER -- Show in Meridian; possible reception(???) and meeting at that time.

OCTOBER -- Mississippi State Fair; regular meeting at Chimneyville.

NOVEMBER -- Show at the University Medical Center; regular meeting at Chimneyville.

PRELIMINARY INFORMATION CONCERNING SHIPPING PIECES TO MERIDIAN: In the next newsletter (mid-summer) we will include an information sheet for you to fill out and attach to each piece. For those desiring to send things from Jackson area, you may bring the piece (hopefully pieces) to Dianne's house by a pre-arranged date (next newsletter). If the piece is received by that time, packing and shipping will be at the Guild's expense. Prices not included in this shipment are the individual's responsibility.

SEE YOU JUNE 6 AT THE NATCHEZ TRACE!

HAPPY WEAVING !

A meeting of the Guild will be held before the Children's Sampler, so please come early.

DIRECTOR will be responsible for holding meetings, keeping the schedule and for leadership of the Guild.

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR will be the Program Chairman, responsible for scheduling workshop and programs. This person would also become Director in case the present Director resigns, moves, etc.

SECRETARY will keep minutes, membership list updated, send notices and collect envelopes for the mailings.

TREASURER will collect dues (which will be voted on later), donations and will be Ways and Means Chairman, that is, will be responsible for fund raisers so that we may have money for outside teachers without having to charge an exorbitant fee to our members.

LIASON will deal with those matters that directly involve the Craftsmen Guild, such as workshops, exhibits at Chimneyville, etc.

This is a brief discussion of the offices.
