Jan. 16, 1988: January meeting of Chimneyville Weavers

NOVEMBER 21 MEETING:

The November Guild meeting was held at the Municipal Art Gallery. The treasurer's report stated that our balance was $520. 08. Elections for 1988 were held and officers elected as follows:

Director: Sandi Tucker
Vice Director: Tina Bradford
Secretary: Marsha Harris
Treasurer: Susan Dignam
Historian: Gerry Reiff

Dues for 1988 are payable now but are actually due in January. Be sure to send or bring the information sheet when you send your check. Checks should be made out to Chimneyville Weavers' Guild, but it would be easier if you would mail them directly to Gerry Reiff at 810 Fairview, Jackson 39202 or bring to the meeting. Dues are $15, or $5 for Friends who just want to receive the newsletter.

It was mentioned that Martha Garrott has been named Executive Director of the Mississippi Craftsman's Guild and the secretary was asked to send a congratulatory note.

Amy Evans had agreed to work on the show next year but has asked for Guild members to serve as committee chairmen and on committees as follows: Entries, Publicity, Hanging, Catalog, Awards, and Reception.

After the business portion of the meeting we looked at examples of various types of laces and then broke up into smaller groups to watch demonstrations of bobbin lace and tatting and make an attempt at learning how to do it. Heather Bradford demonstrated bobbin lace and Tina Bradford and other members helped us with the tatting.

Welcome to new member Jane Dollar!!

Kim Whitt sent me some information on a loom for sale-- it's a 60" 4 harness Le clerc countermarche, practically new. Contact her at Rt, 2 Box 109, Moselle, Ms 39459 ph.(601) 584-8035 or call me and I can give you the owner's number and address in Monticello. No price was given.

Sorry about the timing of this newsletter; the Loom Crawl sneaked up on me, so I hope everyone remembered and reserved the 12th. We will begin at Marcy's (anyone that doesn't know where that is may call me for directions as I am generally easier to reach than Marcy). We'll have appetizers there before continuing to Susan Dignam's for the bread and soup course. We'll finish up at Deborah Levine's with dessert and coffee. Remember to bring your dishes and your gift if you drew a name. Also your dues and info sheets if possible.

A note about the member info sheets: I more or less combined the old one with an old-old one to give us a little more information. The list of standing committees is specified in the by-laws and there is some overlap with the proposed show committees. Just indicate what you're interested in and we'll sort it all out later and actually set up the committees.

I plan to send out a large mailing in January-- please send me names and addresses of prospective Guild members and I will send them a newsletter.
