FEBRUARY MEETING

We were pleased to welcome three new members at our February meeting: Linda Chapman, Margaret Pittman and Sue Miller.

The matter of obtaining a tax number was looked into and it was decided that we did not need one at this time as our account is non-interest bearing.

After the treasurer's report ($716.54) we discussed the upcoming September show. We will most likely have to require pieces to be hand delivered the day before the show is hung, which presents some difficulties as far as screening, cataloging, etc., and pre-registration is being considered.

Standing committees and show committees are being set up. If you never turned a member information sheet you might want to tell Sandi your preference.

Marcy Petrini presented a discussion of drafting which will be continued at the March meeting.

Please be sure to save and add the enclosed supplement to your directory. These are new members or old ones who for one reason or another did not appear in the new directory.

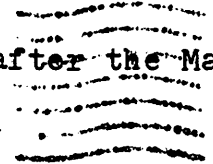

And speaking of directories: we have several members who some of us have never met-- I'd love to have a short note from you telling us what kind of weaving you do, and perhaps a bit about your other interests to pass on via the newsletter. The rest of us have the chance to exchange that sort of information at meetings.

We welcome Georgia Wier to our membership, although we probably won't see much of her as she is headed back to North Carolina about now. You'll remember that she was the weaver who needed a loom while she was in Kosciusko. I had a nice note from her saying that Mary Cobb had seen the "ad" in the newsletter and provided her with a loom and everything worked out well!

Hazel Howell should be in Haiti (yes!) visiting her daughter when you get this, and I will be in Washington D.C. visiting my family if my youngest is over the chicken pox. ~~World~~

For sale: LeClerc "Artisat" 4-harness floor loom. 25" width with 2 reeds and raddle--$425. Matching bench $65. Used two years. Sandi Tucker 746-3081 (h), 746-1226(w)

Just a reminder: the spinners do not ~~plans to spin after the March meeting.~~
