
Chimneyville Weavers and Spinners Guild NEWSLETTER

June 1995

MINUTES Chimneyville Weavers & Spinners Guild May 20, 1995 No Mistake Plantation

Present: Fourteen Guild members; Program Speaker, Addie Lewis
Program Subject: Color!

As each car arrived at No Mistake, its occupants seemed to spill right out and into the beautiful daylily fields and grounds around the house -- what a treat for the senses! We couldn't have asked for a more appropriate spot to think about color.

In Marva's absence, Lu collected stray members and called the meeting to order. She introduced Addie Lewis, art teacher at Prep, who was our speaker for the day. Addie began by speaking on the emotional and psychological effects color has on us, and explained color relationships and the color wheel. After a break for an elegant lunch, which was served right in our meeting room, she continued by using slides of paintings and various examples of color schemes as she spoke. Members participated with spontaneous questions and answers.

BUSINESS

Revision of By-Laws. A motion was made that the proposed revisions of the by-laws presented by the revision committee be accepted by acclamation. The motion was duly seconded and passed.

Adjournment. Following the business and informal show-and-tell, the meeting was adjourned to the porches and gazebo for spinning, or for one more walk through the gardens.

The Weaving Study Group will meet June 15 (NOT June 8) at 7:00 p.m. at Marcy's (950 Fairfax Cir.; 957-1423). Previous attendance is not necessary. Bring a project to discuss, if you have one, or just come to contribute to the discussion. Meetings will continue throughout the summer on the usual day (second Thursday of the month) and time (7:00 p.m.).

Mark your calendars for July 15!

Nancy Landrum will host an informal guild meeting and lunch (!) at her home in Meridian on Saturday, July 15, beginning at 10-10:30 a.m. This summertime gathering at Nancy's is becoming a guild tradition that you won't want to miss!

DIRECTIONS: From I-20, take the Valley Road exit; turn right. After 2.7 miles, you should see a split rail gate on the right with the number 4250; that's Nancy's driveway. (If you reach Mt. Vernon Baptist Church, you've gone too far.)
