

SHEEP TO SHAWL DEMONSTRATION
CHIMNEYVILLE WEAVERS & SPINNERS GUILD
APRIL 21, 2007

FITZGERALD HOUSE PORCH AND FRONT LAWN, AG MUSEUM
DEMONSTRATION: 10 A.M. – 3 P.M.*

*Please arrive early to set up your things and be here for the shearing, and plan to stay after the Demonstration closes to help clear away.
Remember to bring your lunch!

*Wear your pioneer dress if you have it;
otherwise, jeans, etc, will be fine*

Looks like we're good to go, ladies! Thanks to all of you who checked in with what you plan to do at Sheep to Shawl—it's great to be able to say that we seem to have all our bases covered. (Have I forgotten anything?)

Here's the summary:

1. Please note that our location has been changed back to Fitzgerald House.
2. It is important that we are on site by 9:30, at least, to prepare for the day. Do your best to be there, OK? We may also need to tidy up a bit after we're done at 3, so be available if you can. The sheep will be shorn at 10 a.m., D.V.
3. Patricia is bringing two sheep, one white and one brown. She has been treating those babies like royalty, getting them ready! However, since the earlier warm weather affected their little coats, she is preparing (washing, etc) those same sheep's fleeces from last year for our actual spinning. That way we will have the actual freshly shorn fleece for display, and nice clean fleece to spin and weave. She's also bringing some drum carders, and can coach anyone who needs it. We all owe her a great big "Thank you!" for all she's done toward this event.
4. I had the following responses to "What will you do?" –
  - Loom for weaving shawl – Debbie
  - Table loom - Beverley
  - Spinning – Marcy, Karin, Joan (spindle), Hazel, Jane, Sandi
  - Dye Pot – Karin
  - Drum carders – Patricia
  - Hand Carders – Sandi, Patricia
  - Hostess and Etc. – Sandra, Sharon
  - Vendors – Possibly Margaret and Joan

Thanks to those who let me know they might not be there, too....
If your name's not on here, that doesn't mean you can't come! Do what you feel comfortable with – we are going to have a great time, looks like. Thanks so much for all your cooperation (as usual, I might add!) Looking forward to seeing you...

Sandi