FROM THE PRESIDENT

Hello, weavers and spinners!

Can you believe that November is already here? Fall colors are so abundant and inspiring around the lake that it's difficult to stay inside—even to weave!

I want to thank the Craftsmen's Guild of Mississippi for a wonderful Fiber Festival at the Center! And we all know they couldn't have accomplished such a great festival without Marcy Petrini and the great Fiber Festival Committee—Debbie Stringer, Carolyn Campbell, Gio Chinchar, Jane Klinck, Beverly Milner, Donna Peyton and Darlene Steele. It was informative, fun and replenishing... not only for our fiber spirits but also to our stash of books, tools, and supplies. Thanks so much!

We will have a board meeting at 9 a.m. at the Crafts Center on Sat., Nov. 19, followed by our regular guild meeting at 10 a.m. Nancy Landrum and I will provide a program on eco dyeing.

Who is willing to chair the Hospitality Committee and arrange for someone to bring light refreshments for the meeting?

Also, don't forget to plan for Show and Tell and White Elephant!

See you all on Nov. 19,

Winki

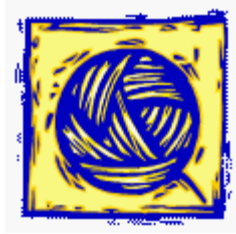

Fiber Festival Folks

Fiber Festival Folks

Fiber Festival attendee Betty Penick of McComb started a new knitting project, perhaps with newly purchased yarn.
