From the President

Hello, Fellow Weavers and Spinners,

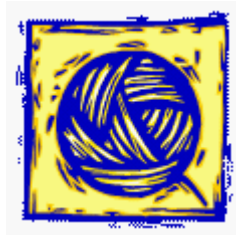

It's after Roc Day, and what a wonderful time we had thanks to all of the hard work that went into making sure it ran so well. In no particular order, special thanks to Marva for the name tags, Jo for the lunches, Marcy for organizing the vendors and all the website/email work, Sharon for the exhibit, Gio for snacks, Sheri Cox for the use of the Craft Center, Debbie for the advertising and cookbook, and everyone there for all the volunteering! If I left anyone out, I am very sorry, and please feel free to toot your own horn! We had a really great time. I don't think

I've ever seen so many people camped out in that building.

Now we have a brand new year to start with. What are your plans for the new year? Last year I did a really good job of using yarn in my stash for knitting projects. This year, I am planning to work on spinning up fiber that is in my deep stash, so I'll be able to make room for new fiber. If you are like me, the stash never gets smaller, but I'm able to make room for new!

Don't forget the Oxford Knit1 Fiber Festival that will be going on before we meet again. Let's see if we can make a group road trip.

Your president,
Donna

Roc Day Thank You

Lisanne Miller from P is for Primitive in Canton sent this email after Roc Day: Big THANK YOU to everyone who made ROC Day 2014 a HUGE success!! The Chimneyville Weavers and Spinners Guild did a great job. . . best way to kick off the 2014! By the way, Lisanne's shop reopens this week, and she has also reloaded the $5 yarn basket!

Winter Fiber Classes

Fiber classes starting with the winter session (which is full) will be reorganized; Marcy Petrini and Kathy Perito will be co-instructors. The classes will be more structured. Once a month, Marcy will cover a specific topic for approximately one and a half hours. These sessions will also be on Tuesday nights, but will be opened to non-enrolled students for a small fee (to be determined by the MS Craftsmen's Guild); Topics and other details will follow soon. If you are interested in attending, please contact Marcy for details.
