Letter from the President

Abby Gipson and her lamb were popular with children of all ages at Sheep to Shawl 2025. Photo by Leslie Gipson.

So many people enjoy Sheep to Shawl: families, particularly the children, and always the fiber enthusiasts. Kids of all ages come for the sheep, especially the lambs. We had beautiful spring weather last month for Sheep to Shawl, and quite a crowd. Many thanks to all our members for a special day. Great job of organizing everything, Janet! We also enjoyed Abby Gipson and her sheep, too.

This month, on Saturday, April 19, we'll have our annual meeting, with nominations announced for president and vice president followed by voting. After the business meeting, we'll demo at the Craft Center for several hours and partake of a potluck lunch and a special fiber donation table. We look forward to seeing you.

Join us!

Need a Name Tag or T-shirt?

Our guild has ordered member name tags for many years from Mars and Steel in north Jackson. The name tags are handy for demonstrations as well as regular meetings. Mars and Steel has the CWSG logo on file for the magnetic strip name tags which currently cost $14.50. If you have never had a name tag or need a new one, you can contact Mars and Steel by phone, 601-982-2828, or by email at orders@marsandsteel.com. If you have questions, contact Alma.

Need a guild T-shirt or tote bag. Don't forget that CafePress is just a click away. The CWSG order link is www.cafepress.com/chimneyvilleweaversandspinnersguild

Program Schedule Demo Day

Bring a project that you would like to work on and something for a potluck lunch. Relax and enjoy hanging out together while we demo after our meeting till 2.

Sheep to Shawl

Sheep to Shawl returned to the Waller Craft Center this year on a warm and sunny March day. Although official attendance numbers were not recorded, it's estimated that we had 150-200 attendees. I can say with confidence that we packed the building for several hours and I personally talked to attendees from West Point, Meridian, and Maine. The ability to draw so many excited attendees from across our state and beyond is a great testament to both the depth of knowledge within our guild and the curiosity of the public about this beloved craft and art form.

We had 21 demonstrators at 7 different stations plus a destash table. Many thanks to our shepherdess Abby Gibson and to Alma Ellis for finding her! We also had a natural dyeing station (Aleatha Shannon), carding station (Sarah Pair and Donna Peyton), spinning station (Sarah Pair, Donna Peyton, Mary Valencic, Brenda Harrower and Patricia Holmberg), weaving station (Alma Ellis, Junia Dillard, Debbie Stringer, Lynn Watkins, Laura Barnhart, Nancy Landrum, and Beverly Anglin), rigid heddle station (Janet Lee, Nancy Hester, and Mary Craft), Styrofoam loom station (Marva Goodman, Liz Barnhart, and Laura Barnhart), destash table (Judy Foster, Jeanne Marie Peet, and Jacqueline Dutsch), and supporters (Sharon Williams Winki Allen, and Marcy Petrini). Thanks to everyone for pitching in and making this event a success!

Spin Art:
Mastering the Craft of Spinning Textured Yarn

By Jacey Boggs

The yarn styles explored in this comprehensive spinning guide are as well made as they are inventive.

Jacey walks you through each of her techniques, with a refreshing mixture of quirky, fanciful, and unexpected designs that are always skillfully constructed—Source other than Library of Congress.
